

BREAKFAST SEMINAR

INCOTERMS

INTRODUCTION OF NEW INCOTERMS 2020

The ICC has published its new set of incoterms that will take effect on 1 January 2020. Together with a guest speaker from the ICC Academy in Singapore, we will provide a brief overview of the key changes to the Incoterms and risk areas. This breakfast seminar is essential for those in trading, shipping and logistics as we will discuss the scope of the Incoterms as it applies to your business as well as commonly held misconceptions on how they operate. The seminar will also include a live demonstration of the ICC's Academy training modules on Incoterms.

Blackstone & Gold cordially invites you to our breakfast seminar.
